REST in PEACE

Val Taylor peacefully passed away surrounded by his family on September 22. He had a gentle manner and contagious laugh. He married Lorine "Sis" Cousins in 1950 and soon moved to California. Val's family was the center of his life with his five children Roxanne, Pamela, Colleen, Randy and Ann along with twelve grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. They settled in Santa Barbara in 1960. A devoted Catholic, Val was an active member of the Knights of Columbus of both Council #5300 and Assembly #44. CHANGES in the MASS 2

This installment will explore the changes found in the initial greeting, Penitential Act A, Gloria and Creed. As the priest greets us with "The Lord be with you", he acknowledges that as baptized people we have the Lord with us. Our response "And with your Spirit" acknowledges that the priest through the grace received in ordination by the Holy Spirit is called to serve God's people as the leader of the celebration of the Eucharist. This dialogue also occurs before the Gospel, the Eucharistic Prayer, the reception of communion, and the final blessing with the dismissal. For the deacon who proclaims the Gospel, this response reminds him that he has been ordained and graced by Holy Spirit as the servant of all servants and to live out the Gospel he proclaims.

To enter the celebration of the Mass worthily, the Penitential Act reminds us that we need to admit that we have sinned and to make a contrite contrition by asking God for forgiveness. The Confiteor (I confess) has two modifications. The first replaces our current wording of "I have sinned through my own fault" with "I have greatly sinned." There is the restoration of the threefold "Through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault"

In praise to God, the Gloria begins with "Glory to God in the Highest and on earth peace to people of good will." The Gloria continues with the restoration of the expanded homage to God. The Gloria acknowledges Jesus as "only begotten Son". The Gloria returns the twin "You take away the sins of the world" with responses "have mercy on us" and "receive our prayer."

The Creed that we profess comes from two Church councils Nicaea in A.D. 325 and Constantinople in A.D. 381. The first major change is the change from "we" to "I". Though we gather as a community of faith to celebrate the Eucharist, this changes reflects the responsibility of each individual not only to believe what the Creed states, but also to live one's faith out by having God as number one in one's life and a deep relationship with Him. The next change helps to express better the distinction between the material world that our senses can grasp and the spiritual world that God reveals to our soul. The revised Creed changes from "seen and unseen" to "visible and invisible." The next two changes reinforce Jesus' unique relationship with the Father and Him being the eternal God because He equally shares the Father's divinity as a Person of the Holy Trinity. The Creed like the Gloria affirms Christ as the "Only Begotten Son" who is "born of the Father before all ages," a profound theological truth. The Son is not "born" in the human sense of beginning one's life, but eternally proceeds from the Father while being always fully God, "begotten not made". This leads to the change from "one in being" to "consubstantial with the Father." The Church councils in order to defend that Jesus is really God not as some of the heretics, like the Arians, claimed Him to be like second class "wanna be God" used the theological term Consubstantial. The next change clarifies and leaves no ambiguity when Christ became human at the moment of His conception in the Blessed Virgin Mary's womb. The wording changes "by the power of the Holy Spirit he was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man" to "and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man." The rest of the creed has slight modifications. The affirmation of Christ's death and resurrection is reworked. "For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day he rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures;" becomes "For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures." "We acknowledge one baptism" changes to "I confess one baptism".

INTERCESSION TO APOSTLE OF CALIFORNIA
PADRE JUNIPERO SERRA

O Lord Jesus Christ, reward the apostolic zeal of Your servant, Padre Junipero Serra, who departing his native Spain, labored for the salvation of souls in Mexico and California. Graciously deign by evident signs and prodigies to glorify him, so that for the exaltation of Your Most Holy Name, he may be elevated to the honors of the altar. Through Padre's intercession kindly grant the special favor, I request.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father
