JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Pope Francis' July Reflection on Mercy

"Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us."
1 Jn 4:7-12

Our response of love toward God is inspired by God's love for us. Our worship, participation in the sacraments, acts of charity and mercy, etc., are all tangible expressions of our hearts turning toward God and responding to the love that he always offers us. The way we choose to live out our life—in particular, the way we live out our identity as baptized Christians—reflects the things we hold as spiritually important. One of the most important of these spiritual realities is that God is love. Pope Francis points out that this truth is manifest in Jesus and in Jesus' life: "The signs he works, especially in favor of sinners, the poor, the marginalized, the sick, and the suffering, are all meant to teach mercy. Everything in him speaks of mercy. Nothing in him is devoid of compassion" ("Misericordiae Vultus" ("The Face of Mercy"), no. 8).

While Jesus is no longer visibly present with us, we still interact with the love of God on a daily basis. For example, the love of God is present when we have dinner with our family, when we let someone go in front of us in line at the grocery store, or when we visit someone who is sick or homebound. In the First Letter of John, we are reminded of our role in our communities—that even though we have not seen God, when we love one another, God's love is lived out on earth. We can spread the love of God by loving others as Christ loved us. Christ gave us the example to follow by his ministry to the poor and suffering and his ministry to us in his Death and Resurrection. The saints and martyrs of the Church serve as reminders and witnesses of this love. We also serve as witnesses to God's love in our families, workplaces, and communities. Through the acts of mercy and compassion by God's faithful, God's love is present here on earth.

INTERCESSION TO APOSTLE OF CALIFORNIA
PADRE JUNIPERO SERRA

O Lord Jesus Christ, reward the apostolic zeal of Your servant, Padre Junipero Serra, who departing his native Spain, labored for the salvation of souls in Mexico and California. Graciously deign by evident signs and prodigies to glorify him, so that for the exaltation of Your Most Holy Name, he may be elevated to the honors of the altar. Through Padre's intercession kindly grant the special favor, I request.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father
