Financial Secretary's Report

While summer is a time to relax, enjoy the company of friends and family at picnics and outings, it won't be a slow time for our Council. Tuesday evening, July 13 and August 10, our Council will have its monthly General Meetings.

Our Council will again be doing a fund drive during the Old Spanish Days Fiesta. To raise funds for scholarships, our council has agreed to operate the Pepsi booth at Mercado Del Norte (Mackenzie Park). The Mercado will be opened from 11:00 AM to 11:00 PM, Wednesday, August 3 through Saturday, August 6. We will need staff for the soft drink operation with teams of two people per shift (a third person will serve as "manager" making sure that the booth remains well-stocked with what it needs).

The Pepsi booth will have three four-hour shifts: 11:00 AM - 3:00 PM, 3:00 PM - 7:00 PM and 7:00 PM - 11:00 PM. We will be calling on council members to volunteer for one of these 12 shifts. Wives and teenagers of council members are welcomed to help. If you are interested in volunteering, contact Mark Wietstock at 899-2729.

GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

My Brother Knights,

As we come to the end of another Columbian year, I find myself often thinking about all the brother Knights I've had the pleasure to know and work with over the 20-plus years I've been a member of Council 1684 ... those we've known, loved and lost over the course of my membership ... our most experienced, senior officers and brothers who perform so many vital functions on our Council's behalf ... and all our more recent added members, who are only just beginning to learn how our Order helps to support us all in our individual journeys of faith, e.g., by constantly presenting us with new opportunities to love ... to serve ... to be a "strong right arm" for the clergy, religious and lay ministers of our Parishes and Schools, and the very hands of Christ in our little part of the world.

Right now, I see our Council entering a phase of transition, in which the need for our more recently admitted members to come forward and accept new responsibilities and leadership positions will become more and more important, with each passing month. To paraphrase the challenge issued to the American people by the late John F. Kennedy, my Brother Knights, "ask not what the Knights can do for you, but what you can do for our Council, our Order, our Community, and our World." As we ask ourselves this question, over and over again in the months and years to come, we should all be assured in the knowledge that all our efforts will be blessed by the steadfast guidance and support of our most experienced Brothers, on whose broad shoulders so much of this Council's good works have been carried for so many years.

As I return to serve once again as Grand Knight for K of C Council 1684, I want to thank you all in advance for your commitment to the spirit and works of our Order, and to one another. I want to remind us all of the four pillars of our Order: Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism. These principles are alive, well and living in the hearts, minds and arms of the Brothers of K of C Council 1684. Each of us has a role to play in making these principles more real ... to ourselves, and to all those with whom we interact in the course of all our works.

Vivat Jesu, Brothers!

Deacon's Corner:

WHAT A GREAT TIME OF THE YEAR

What a great time of the year...the fourth of July is upon us; when we celebrate our countries independence, and our right and freedoms, our rights to worship, to speak freely, and to life liberty and justice.

Fiesta- "Old Spanish Days" is not far off. This celebration as well celebrates our heritage on a more local level, but none the less honors our traditions as free people who celebrate our love and compassion for one another.

Summer in Santa Barbara is about the greatest place in time one could be placed. I encourage everyone to enjoy the beauty of our great community and the surrounding areas. Try if you can to turn off the TV, the radio and computers for a time this summer. It seems we are being inundated with negative vibes from people who pay money to be heard by the masses.

It's no surprise we find ourselves in the midst of the ugliest presidential and congressional campaigns in at least 4 years. It seems to occur about that often, but every year seems worse than the years before.

Rarely am I conflicted as to which candidate I support, but many people have mixed ideas and ideals, as no candidate can offer everything anybody wants or expects. I do ask that we all take a moment to examine both sides of every conflict and issue in our lives.

What our Lord reminds us of is that, as citizens, we have an obligation to render to the state whatever material and personal services are required for the common good of society. Christians are called upon to obey the just laws of the state, to vote for those who seek public office, to participate as well as we can in the political and social life of the community.

I hope we all choose to support and vote for a candidate we feel will serve the common good without looking for personal gain. They have to legislate and govern with the greatest respect for the natural law and the rights of people. This includes the protection of life from the moment of conception until natural death, the defense of marriage and the family, ensuring religious liberty, and safeguarding the rights of parents regarding the education of their children.

I offer my prayers for all those who serve our communities, whether as elected officials or volunteer workers, and God Bless America!

Blessings

Abortion, Euthanasia are the Gravest Issues, Archbishop Gomez Reminds Catholics

What issues facing our country are the most urgent and important? Most people would probably name “jobs,” “fighting terrorism,” “immigration” or similar issues. But in his column in The Tidings (June 3), Abp. José H. Gomez of Los Angeles explains why protecting the lives of unborn babies and vulnerable patients must be our highest priorities.

Some Catholics, he notes, say abortion, assisted suicide and euthanasia are just three issues among many others. This line of thinking “can lead to a kind of moral relativism that renders serious social issues as more or less equivalent... .”

“But the hard truth,” he points out, “is that not all injustices in the world are ‘equal.’ We can understand this perhaps better about issues in the past than we can with issues in the present. For instance, we would never want to describe slavery as just one of several problems in 18th-century and 19th-century American life.” Some evils “are so grave that Christians are called to address them as a primary duty.”

“Among the evils and injustices in American life in 2016,” Abp. Gomez states, “abortion and euthanasia are different and stand alone. Each is a direct, personal attack on innocent and vulnerable human life. Abortion and euthanasia function in our society as what the Catechism of the Catholic Church calls “structures of sin” or “social sins... .”

“Abortion and euthanasia raise basic questions of human rights and social justice,” he adds, “questions of what kind of society and what kind of people we want to be. Do we really want to become a people that responds to human suffering by helping to kill the one who suffers? Do we really want to be a society where the lives of the weak are sacrificed for the comfort and benefit of those who are stronger?... .”

The Archbishop continues, “That is why any approach that essentially tolerates abortion and euthanasia or puts these issues on a par with others, not only betrays the beautiful vision of the Church’s social teaching, but also weakens the credibility of the Church’s witness in our society... .”

“Abortion and euthanasia are ‘fundamental’ social issues,” he adds, “because if the child in the womb has no right to be born, if the sick and the old have no right to be taken care of, then there is no solid foundation to defend anyone’s human rights, and no foundation for peace and justice in society.”

“How can we claim to speak for the marginalized and disenfranchised,” he asks, “if we are allowing millions of innocent children to be killed each year in the womb?”

Too many Catholics vote for politicians who support abortion, assisted suicide, euthanasia and other forms of murder. It’s high time that ends. Let’s keep our shepherd’s words in mind when we choose whom to vote for, and whom we influence our family and friends to vote for.

Our Council will only be operating the Pepsi soft drink concession at MacKenzie Park. While our income may be less compared to previous years, the change should not be large. Brother Mark Wietstock took the gavel, thanking Nick Curran for severing as Grand Knight. As a gift of appreciation, the Council has given Brother Nick a new jacket carrying the K of C logo. Brother Nick thanked the Council for their generous gift.

Respectfully submitted,

DON'T ASSUME YOU CAN'T AFFORD DISABILITY INCOME INSURANCE

David Nordella

One of the biggest mistakes you can make regarding disability insurance is to assume you can't afford it or you won't qualify. Before you make that assumption, do some basic research and apply for coverage through the Knights of Columbus. The Order's Income Armor product gives you options that can help you fit this critical protection into your risk management budget.

Here are two ways you can reduce your premium:

1. Choose a two-year or five-year maximum benefit period.
Depending on your age, the best option is probably a policy that pays benefits until you reach age 67. But a two-year or five-year duration benefit period would cover disabilities you might encounter in your working life.
2. Choose a longer elimination period.
An elimination period is the number of days a total disability must exist before benefits begin to accrue. Typical elimination periods are 30, 90, or 180 days. Choosing a longer elimination period lowers the policy's premium. But be sure you have enough set aside in your contingency fund to account for the longer gap.

As your professional insurance agent, risk management is my specialty. Let's talk about how to protect your income, your retirement needs, and your family's financial future.

REMEMBERING OUR DEVOTED BROTHER GEORGE HEROLD

August 1, 1928-May 12, 2016

George Andrew Herold never wavered in his selflessness, integrity, belief in God, and devotion to his family. For 56 years he and his wife, Maria, celebrated a love that began when they met at a Newman Club event in Santa Barbara; the young soldier was on his way to service in Korea and the young woman was a recent arrival to California from her native Switzerland. They conducted a romance by correspondence, during which he proposed. They were married at the Old Mission on August 3, 1953, and later became longtime parishioners at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church.

As an English literature teacher, first at San Marcos High School and then at Santa Barbara High, George was known for his dry wit; among his six children, his wordplay was a never-ending source of delight. Upon his retirement he returned to an early interest in art, setting up a home studio in which he created plein-air landscapes and ink renderings of his and Maria's travels in Europe and Canada, turning the latter into Christmas cards that were treasured by all.

He would rise at the crack of dawn to make golf reservations at Santa Barbara Golf Club, where he enjoyed regular rounds with several of his children. And with those of his family who shared his passion for art and for teaching he was a gracious cheering section. He and Maria participated in many charities, including Meals on Wheels, and were active supporters of the Catholic schools their children and grandchildren attended. He will also be missed at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, where he attended daily Mass and served as a sacristan.

Born in Lima, Ohio, George was raised in Indiana, where he attended St. Meinrad Seminary. He received his bachelor's at Arizona State University and completed postgraduate work at UCSB. He also took a year off from teaching to study at Brooks Institute, using his beloved children as models for his photography. He is preceded in death by Maria and survived by his children Ann Herold, of Los Angeles; Matthew Herold, of Santa Barbara; Christina DaRos (Peter), of Santa Barbara; Mark Herold (Mary), of Templeton, Monica Christensen (Eric), of Tucson, and Joseph Herold (Dianna), of Templeton; daughter of his heart Kathleen Gale (Ernie), of Tucson; grandchildren Katie O'Toole, Rachel and Marianna DaRos, Zoe Herold, Karl Christensen, Luke, Erin, and Marissa Herold, and great-grandchildren Gabby and Alexis Herold. A Mass for the repose of his soul was held on May 31 at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School, Bishop Garcia Diego High School, and Catholic Charities.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT - MAY 14 - 15

Knights Help Bishop Students in a Basketball Tournament

Deputy Grand Knight Hank Peterson and Third Degree Knight Alvin Bentajado gave it their all in the Fifth Annual Ron Boeddeker Memorial Basketball Tournament.

Fortunately, no player on any team suffered bone fractures or excessive bleeding in the 3-on-3 competition May 14-15 at Bishop Garcia Diego High School's gym. But the intensity of play created constant contact, plus applause and smiles from the audience as the players did their best to imitate Steph

Curry and Draymond Green. If there were referees, everyone would have fouled out.

But it was for a great cause. Corporate sponsors and private donations generously helped deserving students attend Bishop High.

Council 1684's team, which included outsider Ethan Shapiro, split two games, holding one opponent to just two points. The Knights were then scheduled for an elimination 8:30 Sunday morning game, but went to Mass instead. Their subs lost.

ESSAY CONTEST COMPETITION

Williams, Ornelas Win Essay Contest Competition

by Deacon Nick Curran, Grand Knight

Students at Our Lady of Mount Carmel School and Notre Dame School turned in exceptional essays this spring, after being asked to reflect on what Pope Francis' proclamation on the Extraordinary Year of Mercy means to them. All were seventh graders.

Luke Williams won first prize from Mount Carmel and a check for $200. Nicholas Ortega was runner-up and earned $100. Errol B. Sullivan came in third and received $50.

Marco Ornelas finished first at Notre Dame, earning $200, followed by Savannah Larsen $100 and Britney Perez $50.

Thanks to the three members of Council 1684 who judged each essay -- Jose Naranjo, chairman; Javier Briones; and Ricky Herrera.

What follows are the two first-prize essays:

Topic: Matthew 6:7 says, "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy."

Essay by Luke Williams, Our Lady of Mount Carmel School

God shows us great mercy and love every day. His mercy and tenderness are replenished every day, but mercy is quite often overlooked and taken for granted. God forgives us every time we sin, and Pope Francis wants people to realize that we should be merciful like God is. That is why Our Holy Father has declared this year an Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy.

"Teach me to feel another's woes, to hide the fault I see, that mercy I to others show, that mercy show to me, " said Alexander Pope.

People show their mercy in many different shapes and forms. The church uses the Works of Mercy to show people how to share love and mercy in their daily life. Some people show their kindness and mercy by helping a person get through a hard time, or doing something that another person may not be capable of doing.

I have shown love and mercy to my Grandma by opening doors for her, and spending time with her, especially when she is sick. Whenever I help my Grandma, I always remember that eventually I will be old and unable to do my daily chores. Then I will need someone else's mercy.

"A little bit of mercy makes the world less cold and more just," said Pope Francis. I think all of us should strive for one act of mercy every day.

We should be merciful to everybody. I believe that is God's will. If I ever get a job that requires strong leadership, I want to help those who are struggling. You never know what pain they may be experiencing. It may be a divorce, a job loss or health problems. If I'm losing patience with someone, I must remember the love and mercy God has given me.

Psalms 103:8 says, "The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous"

As we progress through this year, we should all practice the Acts of Mercy, treat people like we would like to be treated, and embrace all people. Strive to make their day a little bit brighter. We must remember that God loves us and is always there for us.

Topic: Matthew 6:7 says, "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy."

Essay by Marco Ornelas, Notre Dame School

Mercy is a wonderful thing. It is "the ability to willingly enter into the difficulties of others."

Without mercy, we would seem heartless. When I was new to my school in the third grade, I couldn't speak English very well. Some of the kids would make fun of me. Then, when they saw it was hurting me, they stopped and showed respect.

Other times, I have been able to show mercy to others. When my friend's Mom was diagnosed with cancer, I saw his pain and helped as much as I could.

Another time, my friend Luke's Grandfather died. I knew exactly how he felt. My own Grandfather died a month earlier. I told him how I got through the loss. I told him his Grandfather had a good life and is now in a better place.

Another time, one of my classmates was ignored by all because he looked different. Often he was sitting by himself. I went to him and invited him to play with all of us. This made him so happy. It was a merciful thing to do.

We should be merciful to others throughout all our life. One example now, my 10-year-old cousin is getting bullied at school because of his weight. I tell him to ignore them. You don't need their approval. If they were real friends, they would not judge you.

My heart always goes out to homeless people who have to beg for food or money. I want to help all I see who are hurting. Mercy, forgiveness, compassion -- all important themes we need to have throughout our Catholic life.

Just imagine a world without mercy. There would be chaos. Now imagine a world where everyone shows mercy whenever they can. That's my kind of world!

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Scholarship Winners Shine at Awards Dinner by Deacon Nick Curran

A near capacity crowd at Serra Hall on May 25 watched with joy, respect and much laughter as 24 students from four local Catholic schools received scholarships from Council 1684 for the school year 2016-2017.

The students combined gratitude, honesty, creativity and much light heartedness as they shared $29,000 in awards. But what stood out the most was the originality of their career dreams.

Julianna Forry of Our Lady of Mount Carmel School dreams of becoming a pediatrician or physical therapist. Classmate Errol Sullivan want to be an actor. (In many ways, he already is.), and Kent Winston Dunn's aspiration is to be a pro golfer.

Charitable Records Set

For the 17th year, Knights' charitable giving and volunteer hours grow

The Knights of Columbus set a new all-time record last year for charitable donations and service hours with $175,079,192 in donations and more than 73.5 million hours of service. The numbers were announced at the closing session of the annual Organizational Meeting of State Deputies in New Haven.

“We are very proud of these Fraternal Survey numbers,” Supreme Knight Anderson said. “These are a clear indication that we are keeping faith with Father McGivney’s principle of charity and also of unity, not only among ourselves, but with those in need. This is what we call a charity that evangelizes. This is what makes Knights of Columbus different.”

Supreme Knight Anderson went on to say that these records of giving perfectly illustrate the point made by Father Tomasz Kraj, Poland Associate State Chaplain and Theologian in Residence at the Saint John Paul II National Shrine, in his homily during the Mass that preceded the closing session. Father Kraj said that the world needs more men who pay witness through their actions to what it means to be a Catholic.

We are answering Pope Francis’ call to go to the peripheries,” the supreme knight said. “We can reach half way around the globe to help those in need and we can reach to our neighbor next door. And we do that every day. That makes us witnesses to the faith.”

The number of service hours rose by more than a million over the previous year’s total, according to the Knights of Columbus Annual Survey of Fraternal Activity for the year ending Dec. 31, 2015. Donations grew by more than $1.5 million since 2014, achieving an increase in giving for the 17th consecutive year.

The top ten jurisdictions in charitable giving (from highest) were: Texas, California, Florida, Quebec, Illinois, Michigan, Ontario, New York, Missouri and New Jersey. For volunteer hours, the top ten were: Luzon North, Texas, Illinois, Florida, California, Luzon South, Ontario, Michigan, Visayas and Pennsylvania.

Supreme Knight Anderson pointed out that while these numbers are impressive, jurisdiction leaders need to focus now on ensuring that the Order grows in charitable giving and volunteer service during the coming 2016-17 fraternal year.

The Knights continued to support their local communities in 2015 through such programs as aid to Christians at Risk, Coats for Kids, the Food for Families initiative and blood drives. Knights also gave assistance to Habitat for Humanity, the Global Wheelchair Mission and other large-scale charitable organizations.
