Grand Knights Report

Written by

Frank Castelo, Grand Knight

Now that fall is here, everyone has a lot of things planned on their calendars before the holidays come upon us. We have done well with membership so far but we need to get ready to start the new year with a surge of new members, so use his time of festivities and social events to get to know prospective members better so you can invite worthy candidates. As you can see by our calendar we still have a lot of activities planned even though we cut back a bit because there are so many things going on at this time of the year. We will be considering doing fewer events with greater participation than we have traditionally been doing. The main

FATHER ALBERTO ON PILGRIMAGE

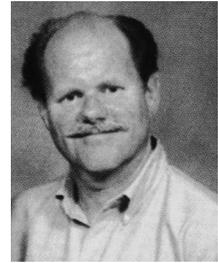

By Don Aubrey

Father Alberto was accompanied by eight parishioners from St Raphael's church on a recent pilgrimage to Israel and Italy conducted by the Pastor and an Associate Pastor from Mission Santa Barbara. Father is preparing his story of the visit, but I want to tell you some of the things he might not dwell upon. It was, of course, Father's first trip outside the Americas. The trip was intense and our time was fully occupied but Father never missed an event. (We were very fortunate to have left Israel before the current problems began.) The most wonderful part of being on the pilgrimage with Father was being present at Masses he and the other priests celebrated in some of the most famous Christian sites in the world. He concelebrated with Father Vincent and Father Daniel at Ste. Catherine Church (next to The Church of the Nativity) in Bethlehem, The Church of the Visitation in Ein Karem, The Emmaus Church and The Church of the Cenacle (Room of the Last Supper). He was the principal celebrant at the Church of the Transfiguration and The Church of the Beatitudes. At this last site the Church was completely booked so we had Mass out-of-doors in a beautiful amphitheater where the altar was backed up against a spectacular view of the Sea of Galilee. In a later conversation with Father he talked of the thrill of celebrating the Mass at these holy sites. The high point of his trip, though, was in Rome. There he was the principal celebrant at Mass in Saint Peter's Basilica! Our Mass was held in the Chapel of Saint Barbara, just to the left of Bernini's famous main altar of the Basilica. The last two Masses he concelebrated in Italy were at the tomb of St. Francis in the lower level of The Basilica of St. Francis in Assisi and in the little Church of Porziuncola that sits in middle of the Basilica of Saint Mary of the Angels, also in Assisi. All of us from St. Raphael Church were as proud of our Parish Priest as though we were his parents. Father confided later that he never, in his wildest dreams, expected to one day celebrate Mass in St Peter's Basilica. This pilgrimage involved a series of deeply moving experiences for all of us and having Father Alberto with us made them even more special.

Program Directors Report

By Michael Donovan,
Deputy Grand Knight

October turned out to be one very busy month. The Octoberfest co-chaired by Ralph Wengler, Paul Coyne, and Tom Puerling; the Parish Dinner chaired by Sam Alfano; the Santa Barbara Regional Congress Dinner chaired by Ygnacio Ramirez; the MR drive chaired by Joe Darga; Keep Christ in Christmas chaired by Earl Pugh; the Halloween Party chaired by Tom Turner; and finally the Parish Breakfast and Flu shot clinic chaired by Tom Puerling. I want to thank all of the above Knights for stepping forward to chair these events. Also special thanks to their spouses for the work they did along with other Knights, spouses, widows, and friends of the Knights. The theme for the S.B. Regional Congress was Following Christ: Service and Sacrifice. In October our council and friends performed this well. Chaplain's Message

Written by

Rev. Msgr. Stephen N. Downes

In November we remember and give thanks. On November 1st and 2nd we remember that we belong to the Communion of Saints, the great Family of God. In Christ, we are one with those who have gone before us into the presence of God (All the Saints — people like ourselves who love and live and fail and succeed and receive God's mercy and grow in God's love and grace each day and have now passed beyond death into the arms of our loving God). We are also one with all the faithful departed who are on the way to heaven and are being purged, purified, transformed so they can enter the all-holy presence of God — we lovingly remember and pray for them, especially our brother Knight and Ladies that they share fullness of life with God in heaven. In the Communion of Saints, are also one with each other here on earth as we walk our journey of life with Christ, all called to be saints through our Baptism. God's amazing grace will bring us safely home. We also give thanks in November, especially on Thanksgiving Day which

Membership Director's Report

Three new Members Join

KOC In October,

Membership report

At the October 9th meeting, three men were initiated into the first degree of the order. Roy Fong, Frank Lynch, and John Vasellina. These Brothers have the old style clip on badges. When you see someone wearing such a badge, introduce your self and make sure the new Brother is at ease. If possible, guide him through the meeting. This is an excellent way for you to check the proper protocol. Three applications for re-admission were also submitted. F.S. Bill McNamara is processing these through supreme Membership Office. The total increase so far this Columbian year is nine. Preliminary discussions are underway for an open house meeting. It would be desirable to invite 20 or so potential members and present a short program giving an overview of the order and our council. I would expect to display some of the yearbooks and council awards, as well as to have some refreshments.

Back row September Initiates: Ted Osborne, Chris Arnoult.

NOTICE TO ALL FIRST DEGREE KNIGHTS

District Deputy, Marty Morozowsky, has scheduled a second degree for Wednesday, December 6, 2000, 7 p.m., Serra Hall, Los Olivos and Garden streets, Santa Barbara. All First Degree Brothers should make every effort to take this step toward full knighthood in our order. A letter will be sent to all First Degree Knights and their sponsors shortly. Sponsors are reminded of their obligation to assist their candidates through the second and third degrees. If possible, sponsors should pick up their candidates and escort them to the degree. If this is not possible arrange to have a reliable Brother Knight to look after your candidate.

An Important Election!

The upcoming election will shape the future of our nation when consideration is given to the possible Supreme court appointments and pending legislation. It is our duty and right as citizens of this great nation to exercise our right to vote! When we meet our Maker, will we be able to say that we did all we could to turn our nation from a "Culture of Death" to a "Culture of Life"? In this election year, the U.S Bishops have called upon our Catholic community to become involved in the political process and to consider the issues and each candidate's positions in light of the Church's teaching and to vote accordingly. Two immediate issues surface for a Catholic. Does a Catholic have moral responsibility to vote for or against candidates based on the issue of the right to life vs. abortion? Can a candidate who is Catholic support a political platform of

Family of the Month
By Frank Castelo GK

I chose Jesse and Joanne Ponce as the Family of the month for October. As our Past Grand Knight (1993-1994) Past Financial Navigator (1999-2000) with an AS Degree in Fire Science from SBCC, and member of the Knights of Columbus for over twenty years, Jesse has certainly paid his dues. Jesse and Joanne have contributed to our council in innumerable ways over the years. We often find them in the middle of so many events always helping and often leading the way. Jesse is a native of Goleta, retired from the Santa Barbara Fire department almost twenty-three years ago with a back injury. Joanne is a native of Santa Barbara; they were married on November 21st, 1959 at Our Lady of Sorrows Church in Santa Barbara. Joanne graduated from Joseph's School of beauty in 1959. They have three children, Joe, Shelli, and Traci, one granddaughter and three grandsons, with one more grandchild on the way. They are both Eucharistic Ministers at Saint Raphael's Church. Jesse is also a member of the Elk's Lodge, and The Native Sons of the Golden West, Santa Barbara Parlor. Joanne is a member of The Native Daughters of the Golden West, Tierra de Oro Parlor. Congratulations Jesse and Joanne, thanks for all your contributions.

reasons are to not overwhelm the membership with too many dinners and events as well as the volunteers, and the other reason is we could still make as much income if we advertise it properly as a special event. I want to take this opportunity to wish you all a happy thanksgiving and invite you all to pause for a moment during this special season to give thanks to God for all our blessings during this year and to thank all of the active membership for their contributions and hard work that make our organization successful, and allows us to give to those in need.

Knight of the Month

Ed Page chosen for his Contributions to Council 5300

By Frank Castelo, Grand Knight _

Ed joined our council in August of 1995. Since then, Ed has filled the positions as recorder and Chancellor, for our Council. He is also a member of the Fourth Degree Assembly, and is in the color guard. Ed is frequently seen at special events and parades in which the color guard is involved, and is currently Serving as the Faithful Navigator. Ed is always willing to help with various events in the kitchen, especially the fish fry's. His wife Janet is very helpful to him as well as our council and is responsible for the majority of advance ticket sales for most of our events. Thank you Ed for the good example you set for your brother Knights.

has been called the "quintessential American holiday". This is a great American holiday which invites us to stop and give thanks to God for all God's love, goodness and countless blessings. We are richly blessed by God with life, health, each other and the rich bounty of this wonderful land. "Thanks be to God" is our heartfelt prayer on Thanksgiving Day and each day, especially in the Holy Eucharist, our greatest Thanksgiving. Many people count their blessings on Thanksgiving Day. As Chaplain, I especially give thanks for all the Knights and their families. What a great blessing you all are to our Church and our community! Happy Thanksgiving to all!

VOCATIONS ARTICLE

JESUS NEEDS YOU, DON'T SAY NO!

Vocations Are Everybody's Business

This past Saturday (Oct. 20) I attended the Santa Barbara Pastoral Region's Religious Education Congress at Bishop Diego High School. One of the vendors at the Congress was the Archdiocesan Vocations Office. I had an interesting conversation with Father Michael Ume of the Vocations Office. Amid all the pamphlets and brochures were several that caught my interest for use in youth ministry. Classes were in session, so Father and I had a chance to talk uninterrupted. He told me about the recently held "Come and See Retreat" held at St. John's Seminary. This was one of several that will be held this year to allow youth to explore a vocation. The weekend had 36 youth inquiring about a religious future. These youth were described as bright and eager to explore the calling within them. Hopefully, some of them will realize that calling and respond in a most generous way to the Lord. I would encourage each one of you to pray for these youth as they discern their vocation. One of the pamphlets on the table was published by this Archdiocese. One of the short articles was titled An Archdiocesan Priest in Los Angeles. I would like to share with you the points brought out about the life of a priest.

- Ø Leads the people into unity with each other and unity with God through the Eucharist.
- Ø Prays for the people daily through the Liturgy of the Hours, sacrifices and intercessory prayer.
- Ø Brings people into peace with God, self and others through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
- Ø Loves all people inclusively within a celibate lifestyle.
- Ø Prays, studies, and preaches the Gospel in such a way that people in a specific place and time can hear the Word and put it into practice.
- Ø Animates, stimulates and coordinates the gifts, desires, and talents of people in the parish community.
- Ø Works with lay leaders and parish ministers in creating communities of faith and justice.
- Ø Helps a multi-cultural community of people do what is pleasing to God. What a beautiful job description! We pray that many will respond to the call. For more information about vocations contact the Archdiocesan Office for Vocations at 3424 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90024-2241; (213) 637-7248.

abortion? Every individual has a responsibility to form a correct conscience. A Catholic, in particular, has the responsibility and the ability to form a correct conscience. A Catholic knows -- from natural law, from Sacred Scripture, and from the teachings of the Holy Father, the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the constant teaching of the Catholic Bishops -- of the intrinsic immorality of abortion, especially partial-birth abortion. Bishop James McHugh, the bishop of Rockville Center, New York, and a member of the U.S. Bishops Pro-life Committee, reemphasized recently that not all moral issues are of equal importance. Some are more grave than others. He points out in his article in the September issue of Columbia magazine that abortion is the most serious issue that confronts Americans in this election. Catholics whose vote is based upon solely economic or political issues are ignoring their conscience and are failing in their responsibilities of being a faithful citizen. As did the prophets of the Old Testament, we must take a prophetic stance in our day to speak out against the evil and violence of the community in which we live. We must vote -- and vote our consciences--to uphold, the sacredness of life. Since natural Brothers, here's your follow up on the Box Dinner Social, Monday, November 27th, Have you ladies thought about it? The more couples that attend, the more fun it is. law, Sacred Scripture, the Catholic Catechism and the consistent teaching of the Church uphold the sacredness of the life of the unborn, no Catholic in right conscience can support the pro-choice position. The Catholic candidate for public office who supports abortion either possesses an incorrectly formed conscience or rejects the Church's teaching. The Bishops of the United States, in their statement of November 1998, Living the Gospel of Life: A Challenge to American Catholics state that "No one, least of all someone who exercises leadership in society, can rightfully claim to share fully and practically the Catholic faith and yet act publicly in a way contrary to that faith."The arena for moral responsibility includes not only the halls of government but the voting booth as well. The Knights of Columbus, as an organization, is unequivocally pro-life. We its members must also be pro-life in all of our decisions and actions.
