GRAND KNIGHT'S REPORT

By William McLafferty, Grand Knight

The big news this month is BINGO. It's baaack! This year, the legislature passed a bill which permits charitable organizations such as the Knights of Columbus to have a weekly Bingo night to raise money for the charity. It's called Remote Caller Bingo. The law permits a private organization to run the Bingo game from a remote location and to furnish a big screen TV monitor with cables that they install plus the bingo cards. When enough councils are signed up to join the game, the numbers are then called at the remote location, the local council monitors the hall and can halt each game to verify a winner. The number of councils participating creates a money prize that can be rather large to the winners, and which will compete with the Chumash prizes, for example.

The local council's participation is to set up the hall prior to the game, sell the cards to attendees and monitor the games.

Chancellor's Report
SK Ed Barrier, Chancellor

Brother Knights,

Here is a spiritual reflection from St. Pio of Pietrelcina:

“God dwells in us - the Divine Guest, full of love and kindness. He makes His abode in our hearts that He may help and strengthen us. He will leave us only if we have the misfortune to drive Him from our souls by mortal sin. To drive out this Spirit of love by preferring the creature to Him in an absolute manner, is what St. Paul calls, "to stifle the Spirit". . . His action is extremely delicate. When the soul resists Him deliberately and frequently, it forces Him little by little to be silent. Then one comes to a standstill on the way of holiness and even incurs great risk of leaving the way of salvation”.

In your prayers, continue to remember those Brother Knights and their families in need: Mell Hueston, Stephen Schlesselmann, PGK and FDD for continued recovery. Also, please pray for Chawa Ramirez, wife of Ygnacio Ramirez (d.) PGK, Sir Knight Bruce Velasco; the family of Thomas Quinn (d.) PGK, Msgr. Henry Van Son, Nancy Herrera, wife of Pablo Herrera PGK, Lupe Villa, Socorro Seickmann, Ralph Schiferl (d) father of Brother Glenn Schiferl and Carmen Rey (d).

Different life stages, changing needs

Paying for college for your children may be one of your family's current needs. You may be concerned about a comfortable, worry-free retirement. You may wonder if needing costly long-term care will deplete your hard-earned assets. You want to have something to leave for your wife, children or grandchildren.

At some point you may have had all of these needs on your mind. Over time, these thoughts make way for others as your needs evolve, your finances change and you get older. What is important to you at age 20 may not be at 30, or 45, or 65. What is the best way to be prepared for these changes before they happen?

One of the easiest ways to be financially ready for changes that come with different life stages is to meet annually with your professional Knights of Columbus agent, and address the needs that his analysis uncovers. This can help you be ready to face the financial challenges and issues on the road ahead.

During that annual visit, I'll take the time to review your needs, goals and budget. I'll update all beneficiaries on your policies and be sure your coverage meets your needs. I'll recommend a program of life insurance, long-term care insurance and guaranteed income annuities that will help you rest easy at night.

Whatever your needs, whatever your concerns, whatever your stage in life, I can help.

To contact me with regards to any of your K of C insurance needs, please email me at dlfarebrother@aol.com or call me at either of the numbers listed below. I look forward to hearing from you.

New Report Suggests Over 1 Billion Abortions Committed: Pro-Life Activists

By James Tillman

NEW YORK, NY, October 16, 2009
LifeSiteNews.com -- A new report by the pro-abortion Guttmacher Institute, entitled "Abortion Worldwide: A Decade of Uneven Progress," points to the fact that over a billion abortions have been committed, say pro-life activists.

The report found that the annual number of abortions have declined over the period from 1995 to 2003. Nevertheless, the Guttmacher Institute said that in 2003, approximately 41.6 million abortions were committed worldwide. On average, this works out to more than one death by abortion for each second of the year. Since abortion has been available since before 1970, and very widely available since 1980, pro-life activists are saying that, even by a conservative estimate, the total number of preborn children to have been killed by abortion is likely in excess of one billion. If 40 million children per year were aborted since 1980 that would already make for 1.12 billion preborn babies killed.

"There simply isn't anything close," said Stephen Phelan of Human Life International. "Over the many years since this has become a practice, even legalized in many countries, you're over a billion."

"There's definitely nothing to compare. The closest thing you'd get to it would be the atheist, socialist dictators of the 20th century; and even they, in their gruesome efficiency, were only able to kill somewhere between a hundred and a hundred-seventy million people. ... There's no comparison."

The Guttmacher Institute report also mentions the "high degree of safety" of abortions in communist China, but neglects to condemn China's one-child policy or the forced abortions that occur there. It nevertheless refers to the "woman's right to make her own childbearing decisions" and couches the report in the language of "choice." According to the report, 8.8 million "safe" abortions occur in China each year, approximately 1 in 5 of all abortions worldwide.

KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

Tim Hogan

By Bill McLafferty

The parish picnic was fast approaching, and volunteers were few and far between. Some of the Knights were working with the Boy Scouts to set up the booths for the Sunday event. One Special Knight was involved in the field set-up early in the morning, and then he went to Santa Cruz Market to pick up 175 pounds of tri-tip. He carted the meat back to the Church Hall by himself, carried it into the kitchen, and proceeded to trim the fat from the meat. He continued to work alone and some women who were at the Hall for a day long retreat expressed concern that he had no help. He then transported the trimmed meat, again, by himself, to Jim Bradbury's house where the barbecue was located. Jim was on a cruise and had asked this Knight if he would help in the cooking of the tri-tip. He started a fire and waited for the right time to place the meat on the grill. By late afternoon, the fire was ready, and he then was joined by Mark Vampola to assist in the cooking. He and Mark spent the rest of the daylight hours cooking the meat, and about 7:30 PM, he transported the meat back to the Hall for slicing the next morning. On Sunday morning, he made sure that Patrick Donohoe, the appointed slicer, found the stored meat, and also picked up the slicer which was loaned to the Knights by Santa Cruz Market. Then he was off on many other chores he had to handle for the rest of the day.

This exemplar Knight is Tim Hogan, a man who is burning all of his candles at both ends and still volunteers to help out without a single complaint to anyone. Through it all, he smiles and shrugs off the suggestion that he is superhuman, but tries to find a weekend that he doesn't have commitments to fulfill, to his family and community, and it would be difficult to see any free time for Tim to just relax.

Tim also worked two shifts in the Coke booth this August, again without complaint, and he never seems stressed to anyone watching him calmly going about his assignment and keeping everyone else on their toes, always with a smile.

Life of Service and Dedication

Rev. Frank Colborn Helping at St. Raphael Parish, Ordained in 1963 in Rome, Retired in 2007

By Joe T. Kovach, Member of the KC's since 1996

Rev. Frank Colborn, retired priest, has been helping to celebrate Masses at St. Raphael Church since July 2007. Many Knights of Columbus members and parishioners were interested in learning more about his priestly life after learning about his scholarly background and listening to his well-prepared and interesting homilies.

Father Frank Richard Colborn, 71, originally from Berkeley, California, knew at an early age that he wanted to pursue a vocation to religious life and the priesthood. He professed his first vows in 1952 and was ordained on December 18, 1963 in Rome by the Auxiliary Bishop of Rome.

Born on July 1, 1938, he entered his seminary studies at age 14 at Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit, Michigan. He graduated from St. Thomas Grade School in Ann Arbor in 1952 and Sacred Heart High School in Detroit in 1956. "My initial vocation to the priesthood came about thanks to the sisters and priests in school," stated Fr. Frank.

His parents, Frank H. and Ann Colborn and sisters, Fran Soule and Melissa Colborn and Fr. Frank resided in Berkeley, Rochester, N.Y., Ann Arbor and Detroit and Santa Barbara, respectively.

"There were 60 classmates in my ordination class and they are now scattered all over the USA," remarked Fr. Frank. He added, "My favorite class at the seminary was Theology of Grace and my hardest class was Canon Law."

Father's first Mass was celebrated at the Chapel of Catacombs of Priscilla in Rome on December 19, 1963. His assignments since his ordination have included:

- * St. Ignatius, Highland Park (L.A.) 1964;
- * St. Philip, Pasadena, 1965-67;
- * Graduate House of Studies, Rome, 1967-69;
- * St. Alphonsus, East L.A., 1974-85;
- * Chaplaincy, The Claremont Colleges, 1986-93;
- * Holy Name, Los Angeles, 1993-99;
- * St. Andrew, Pasadena, 1999-2007.

His favorite assignments as a priest were: St. Alphonsus for its life and excitement; Holy Name for its liturgy and people's devotion; the Claremont Colleges for the mix of pastoral and academic work.

"Promoting faith-based community organizing in East Los Angeles and elsewhere has been my most satisfying experience at my prior assignments," noted Fr. Frank. He added, "Celebrating Mass with the Gospel Choir at Holy Name Church stands out as my most memorable experience as a priest."

Responding to his main goals he has been able to accomplish since his ordination, Father exclaimed, "I cannot claim "accomplishment," but fulfillment of hopes for the church to be open to lay involvement, to people of many cultures and languages, to be concerned about social justice. I made a small contribution in these areas. One goal he has in mind is to write a textbook on Social Ethics and one on Ethics in general.

Asked about the keys to his success as a priest, pastor, associate pastor, retired but active priest, Father exclaimed, "Again, I don't want to claim "success." Interest in the Bible and in Theology, devotion to the Eucharist and support from fellow priests all have been good influences in my life."

In Father's travels as a priest, he saw Pope John Paul II when he visited Los Angeles in 1986. He took some students from the Claremont Colleges to the Pope's talk in Universal City - a meeting with Youth which He obviously enjoyed.

Commenting on his personal attributes and skills as a priest, Father expressed, "I think I am a good celebrant of liturgy, a good preacher and have been a good teacher. I'm interested in Theology and contemporary thought and enjoy talking about what's going on in the church and the world. For the rest, I agree with St. Paul: It's up to God to judge our work." He added, "I have written a small book of Meditations on the Gospel of St. Luke as it might appear in the contemporary world. I'm publishing it myself under the title: 'Luke's Notebook.'" (It can be ordered online.)

In replying to the question: "What is the best way to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary as our spiritual Mother, our Mother of the Church?" Father encouraged, "By imitating her in faith and obedience to God (Luke 2)."

In answer to the same question, Fr. Frank provided another biblical reference: "In the Presence of Our Lord," He said, "So, could you not watch with me one hour (Mt. 26:40)?" For centuries, Catholics have answered Christ's plea by placing themselves before His Presence in the Blessed Sacrament for historical, theological and psychological reasons. Father Frank concluded with this observation: "I certainly think it is good, as a way of realizing Christ's closeness to us and as a preparation for more whole-hearted union with Christ in the Sacrifice of the Mass. Whether more people should attend here, only they can decide."

In his 46-years as a priest, he has performed several hundred weddings and as to funerals where Father was the main celebrant, he pointed out,

"Hard to say...LOTS!"

At the 2nd Annual St. John's Seminary Alumni Awards Dinner held on September 20th, five exemplary priests were honored. Fr. Frank presented a friend and colleague, Msgr. Royale Vadakin, before he and the other four priests received their tile plaque awards bearing the eagle that is a symbol of St. John, the seminary's patron saint. Msgr. Vadakin was praised by his classmate, Father Francis Colborn, as a man "dedicated to the service of the people of God," a quality that Fr. Colborn said was evident in the seminary. "Roy wasn't one of those noisy classmates," he smiled. Fr. Frank added, "An accomplishment the whole archdiocese can be proud of was having Msgr. Vadakin serve as Rector of St. Vibiana's Cathedral and a pioneer in the development of ecumenical and interfaith relations."

Describing his associations with Father Bruce Correio, Father Mark Strader, Deacon Wayne Rascati, Deacon Steve Montross and the St. Raphael's rectory staff (Noel, Maria, Jackie, others), Fr. Frank asserted, "They all have been friendly and I hope they have found me friendly. Since I don't live at the Rectory, we don't interact every day."

His practical advice to the youth of the parish concerning their faith is "think seriously about what you really believe in...don't just drift with the current."

"What I recommend to myself: re-evaluate life in the light of Christ," was Father's recommendation for seniors in their twilight years.

Father recommends that everyone should own a good Bible (New American Bible, paperback!) and read it regularly and get the "Catechism of the Catholic Church (for adults).

Other interesting personal information:

- * What is your favorite scriptural passage in the Bible: "The Reign of God is at hand." (Mk 1:14);

Festa Italiana Dinner Report

By Sam Alfano, Festa Italiana Dinner Chair

On Saturday evening, October 10, the "Festa Italiana" Dinner (also known as the annual Columbus Day Dinner) went into full swing with 180 attendees enjoying a fun filled gathering.

Activity related to the dinner began early when PGK Dale Wenzinger developed and printed the 200 tickets for the event. The ticket selling crew then went into action with representatives from St. Raphael's, San Roque, Our Lady of Sorrows, and St. Mark's parishes, selling tickets to parishioners. Tickets were also sold at St. Vincent's. All priests and sisters were invited as our guests. It was a pleasure to have Sisters Marie Rachelle and Mary Anne from St. Vincent's.

The acting chefs (Livia Dodero, Sam Alfano, PGK Paul Coyne, and Nick Vitalari) were busy preparing the special pasta sauce (all have been sworn to secrecy) in the kitchen early Saturday morning. At 2:00 PM, the set up crew arrived.

The crew was composed of Brothers Paul Robillard, Blake Robillard, Al Meckelborg, and Zac Wenzinger. Brothers Patrick Donohoe and Andrew Nguyen set 25 tables for the evening.

The delicious antipasto salads were prepared in the kitchen by Livla Doderio, Gloria Merrigan, Paul Coyne, Vince and Sandy Filippello. At 4:00 PM, these same chefs, along with Andrew Nguyen, Patrick Donohoe and the other helpers from the parish youth group assembled the salads in production line fashion in the main hall. It was quite a sight to behold.

As the guests arrived for the dinner, PGK Don Aubrey and wife Lucille, along with Joan Magenheimer and Stan Roth, handled the door prize tickets as well as the raffle tickets. The grand prize donated by Joan was a seven day cruise to the Mexican Rivera and garnered the most interest of all the prizes.

Chefs Ed Barrier and Paul Coyne began the pasta process in earnest, cooking 46 pounds of the Penne Regate al dente. In the meantime, the sausage BBQ crew, consisting of Brothers John Kirk and Phil Di Mateo, were firing up the BBQ. They not only cooked the 120 sausages but also prepared 20 loaves of garlic bread as well. Pastor Fr. Bruce Correio led us in saying grace. It was a pleasure to see him and Fr. Mark Strader joining in the dinner. Before and during the dinner, PGK Felix Sanchez and wife Julie were busy serving wine, beer and soft drinks at the bar.

Our thanks go to Youth Leadership Leader John Vasellina for contacting the youths who did a fine job of serving dinner. Nine volunteered, which expedited the serving of the antipasto salad, the main course and the spumoni ice cream dessert. Special thanks to Andrew Nguyen who supervised the youth who served dinner. Also special thanks to Patrick Donohoe, who along with his other duties, supervised the kitchen cleanup crew.

Accordion entertainment was provided during the dinner by Bob Molinari and Ross Pindaudi, which was a wonderful touch to the "Festa." They accompanied a sing-along, which was led by Sam Alfano and Paul Robillard, and enjoyed by everyone. Jokes were told that evening to the merriment of the audience. Of special note was a joke told by 12 year old Sophia Martinez, daughter of Peter and Lupe Martinez. It was one of the highlights of the evening.

The raffle drawing led by PGK Don Aubrey, wife Lucille, and Joan Magenheimer was a great success.

The evening was not only enjoyable from every standpoint, but was a financial success as well. Income from the bar, the raffle tickets and the dinner tickets allowed the Knights to place $2,600.00 into the account. This was after all of the expenses were deducted. These funds will be used by the Knights to help fund worthy causes throughout the community in the coming year. Grand Knight Bill McLafferty concluded the evening by recognizing all of the Past Grand Knights in attendance and thanking the dinner committee.

The clean-up is also our responsibility. The council can also sell snacks and sodas during the games. The council does not pay for the set-up or for the big screen TV; that is the responsibility of the private organization. The Council collects the money and deposits the balance after deducting our share of the proceeds.

The set of cards for each game (8, I believe) sell for $25.00 each, and up to three sessions are held each night.

As one of the veterans of our old Bingo nights mentioned, there will be no smoking allowed in the Hall during the game; this was a problem for many working in the old days when smoking was allowed.

This promises to be a good fundraiser event for the Knights and will benefit the Church and school, as well as other charities to which we bestow funds. I believe we should put the financial need of the parish at the top of the list of beneficiaries and causes. If we work together on this Bingo game, it will help us all in ways we couldn't imagine before.

I have had contact with the private organization and other councils, and have submitted a letter of interest and commitment on behalf of Council 5300. There will be a waiting time to see who joins the group, and when the games will be held locally. Stay tuned.

The Columbus Day dinner was a smashing success, thanks to Sam Alfano and his helpers. It was an evening of great food, great fun and so-so singing (at least at our table). We even sang an Irish song and heard a few jokes. The raffle was a hit with great prizes and many tickets were sold. Thanks to all who helped serve at the bar and in the hall, and to the fine cooks (Master Chef Paul Coyne et al) for a wonderful and enjoyable evening.

Mark your calendars for the big Christmas party on December 5, 2009. A delicious dinner will be served and special Christmas drinks will be offered. The entertainment will be exciting. This is a good family event and tickets will be available for sale soon. This will be our last big event of the calendar year. More later.

The October breakfast was cancelled because of Monsignor Steve's installation as pastor of Mount Carmel Church. It seems that all of our "workers" were either tied up for the Color Corps at the installation Mass and for the Columbus Day dinner the night before. A lot of people were disappointed, but the troops were deployed elsewhere and simply were not available. The November breakfast is still on the schedule.

I would urge all Knights to attend our next business meeting and the mentors should contact their charges and either bring them to the meeting or encourage them to show up by meeting them there and introducing them again to the other members. We need more involvement! We also need new members. Sign up a friend for the next exemplification. We need 15 new members this Columbian year and four months are gone already.
